This week we had two special visitors to our school, Guy Tansley from Bugs 'n' Stuff and Richard F. Stevenson 'That History Bloke'. Guy brought some amazing creatures along for us to enjoy. The children had close contact with creatures of the insect, amphibian and reptile world, they really enjoyed it. Richard came in to work with year 6 to do a workshop on WW1, the children had a great time and learned a lot about Local Heroes.

Our children are all working hard at the moment on their performances ready for our Christmas productions. Tickets are on sale now from the office at £2. Please try and come along to support our children and our school. The children and staff put a lot of hard work into these performances and they are always beautiful to watch. All the children put their hearts and souls into making it a wonderful performance.

In January years 1 to 6 have the chance of going to the Theatre Royal in Newcastle to see Goldilocks and the Three Bears. It will be a magical pantomime, packed full of hilarious routines and dazzling special effects. The cost of this trip is only £7, the forms have all been received but this must be paid by 12 December to the office.

On the 20 December children in our Rainbow Room and Nursery are going to enjoy a Polar Express day. Please could the children in those classes come into school in their pyjamas. The children will find out about the wonderful story of The Polar Express and follow the magical adventure, while learning about friendship, bravery and the spirit of Christmas.

Last week was our Christmas fair and we are sure you will agree it was a spectacular event. Not only were there lots of stalls for you to get some great gifts for Christmas but a special visitor also turned up to see our children. Santa came with his elves to see us! He sat in his grotto and spoke to lots of our children about what they hoped Santa would bring if they were good. This was a great event and a special thanks must go to Mrs Leslie and Mrs Godfrey who organised it. We raised £770 which will all go towards our children. Thanks to everybody that came to make it a fabulous success.

Last week the library bus visited the school and to celebrate this years 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 invited parents/carers to come in to read the books they had chosen with their child. It was lovely to see the children sitting with parents enjoying a good book. The children really enjoy the library bus coming and this just made it extra special for them. Thanks to all of the parents/carers that came to this event. The next library bus visit is after the Christmas break.
