Composition	Write from memory simple sentences dictated by the teacher that include words using the GPCs and common exception words taught so far		Write sentences by: sequencing sentences to form short narratives		Write sentences by: re-reading what they have written to check that it makes sense
Grammar	Beginning to join words and clauses with 'and'.		How the prefix un- changes the meaning of verbs and adjectives [negation, for example, unkind, or undoing: untie the boat]		Uses 'and' to join clauses and is beginning to use other conjunctions e.g. if, so, but, because, when independently to join clauses.
Punctuation	Separation of words with spaces Use capital letters at the start of sentences.		Demarcate sentences using capital letters and full stops		Demarcate sentences question marks and exclamation marks to demarcate sentences
Spelling	Spell words containing each of the 40+ phonemes already taught. Spell common exception words.		Add prefixes and suffixes using -ing, -ed, -er and -est where no change is needed in the spelling of root words: e.g. helping, helped, helper, eating, quicker, quickest		Use letter names to distinguish between alternative spellings of the same sound. Add prefixes and suffixes using the spelling rule for adding -s or -es as the plural marker for nouns and the third person singular marker for verbs.
Handwriting	Begin to form lower-case letters in the correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place		Form capital letters		Write letters, most of which are correctly formed.
